

David Harrington, Walter P. Moore and Associates, Tampa Florida

1. I would suggest that thought be given to increasing the pen width options to 10. There needs to be provision made for half size drawings, with pens reduced.

Response: All line widths were based upon the 8 line widths recommended by ISO 128 "Technical drawings - General principles of presentation." These line weights should be legible in half size drawings.